GREAT

RE-BUILDING SALE

AT THE
NEW YORK
STORE.

This morning carpenters and builders commence work on the addition to our store. Hustle and stir of building naturally creates inconvenience in storekeeping. Shelving have to be moved and stock piled any which way. Fact is they are in the way. We have told you that we are taking the store room Nos. 226 and 228 Washington St. East.

This room when completed will give us the greatest Millinery and Cloak and Suit Parlors in the west. Our Spring Stocks are coming in heavily and the chance naturally to do justice to all goods in proper display, is taken from us, hence this
